THE BEGINNING OF EVERYTHING

Everyone recognizes the truth of good proverbs, and so they endure from generation to generation. The Russians have a surprisingly bold one that fits this Sunday's Gospel: "Bread is the beginning of everything."

Judging from the first reading, Elijah might have felt that it was too late for bread—too late for life itself. This great prophet was at the end of his rope and endurance. Then, not one, but two angels visit him. One offers food and drink. The other gives startling directions. For Elijah, this food from the angels is bread for his journey. On the strength of the heaven-sent gift of food, he walks to the mountain of God.

In today's Gospel, Jesus offers himself, not just as bread for the journey, but as bread for life itself. He gives his flesh as life for the world. "I am the bread of life" (John 6:48). He is the beginning of everything

“Reading, Praying, Living God’s Word:

A Workshop on How to Pray with the Bible”

Please join us for a special workshop on “Reading, Praying, Living God’s Word: A Workshop on How to Pray with the Bible” on Tuesday, August 11, from 6:00-8:00 p.m. at St. Patrick Catholic Church, 406 E. Pinhook Road, Lafayette. An ancient approach to prayerful reading of the Bible known as lectio divina (or “sacred reading”) teaches us to listen to God’s Word, to apply God’s Word to our lives, and to pray from the heart. This way of prayer can lead to a deeper relationship with the Lord. If it is practiced on a regular basis, lectio divina can change our lives and, through our actions, the world. Facilitated by Fr. Ken Broussard, this workshop will guide participants in the practice of lectio divina. Participants are encouraged to bring their Bibles with them. There is no cost to attend and pre-registration is not required. For more information, please contact Mary Bergeron (654-8682).
