TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The Lord GOD is my help; who will prove me wrong? (Isaiah 50:5-9a).

Psalm — I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living (Psalm 116).

Second Reading — Faith, if it does not have works, is dead (James 2:14-18).

Gospel — Jesus asked his disciples, "Who do you say that I am?" (Mark 8:27-35).

SERVANT

Sometimes the hour and the person meet. Sometimes, when a task or mission is set upon our shoulders, we know we must meet our responsibilities and we are ready. These are heady and invigorating times. The first reading and the Gospel proclamation today are intimate glimpses of a commencement, an inauguration of a challenging future. In both readings, a sense of gravity prevails.

The first reading is from the mysterious Servant Songs from the book of Isaiah. The person is steadfast and brave. His courage and bravery are not located in his stout heart, but in God. We are reminded, "The Lord God opens my ear that I may hear" (Isaiah 50:4), so the servant understands the mission. And twice, "The Lord God is my help" (50:7, 9), so that the servant can endure the coming struggle.

AROUND OUR PARISH

Fr. Dan and his family would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone for their thoughts, prayers, condolences and kind words during his mother's passing. Ms. Hilda was a beautiful, pious, loving person. She will be dearly missed, her beautiful smile, her loving presence in mass every day. Please pray for her soul, Fr. Dan and his entire family during their time of healing.

The Catholic Daughters had a successful cake sale due to the help of the St. Jules parishioners, who not only purchased their goodies, but baked goodies as well. Thank you for your support.
